Van Cleve, Principal New York Institution for the Education of the Blind, New York City; Mr. John F. Wilson, Superintendent Indiana School for the Blind, Indianapolis, Indiana; Miss Susan B. Merwin, Superintendent Kentucky School for the Blind, and Assistant Secretary American Printing House for the Blind, Louisville, Kentucky. There was also present, Mr. H. R. Latimer, Executive Secretary, Commission on Uniform Type for the Blind, Baltimore, Maryland.

In the absence of the President, Col. Cowan, Mr. Van Cleve, Vice-President presided.

The minutes of the last Annual meeting were read and approved.

Election of Officers:

The name of Col. Cowan was placed in nomination for President by Mr. Wilson, and seconded by Mr. Pirtle. The Secretary was instructed to cast one ballot for election of Col. Cowan, which was done, electing Col. Cowan President.

By similar action, Mr. Van Cleve was elected Vice-President, and the Citizens-Union National Bank of Louisville, Ky., was elected Treasurer.

Reports of Committees:

Mr. Wilson of the Publication Committee reported that the work of the Committee had been sub-divided, and the next text-books for the first and second grades in Revised Braille had been prepared and other selections were being made for immediate stereotyping.

Mr. Bruce, Acting Chairman of the Legislative Committee, made the following report:

On February 17, 1919, a bill providing for an annual increase of $40,000 in addition to the $10,000 original appropriation for the American Printing House for the Blind, was introduced in the House by the Hon. Swager Sherley, rep-representative from Kentucky. A hearing was held on this bill before the Committee on Education and Labor on February 22, at which Miss Merwin and Mr. Bruce were present, and a favorable report was made on the bill. An interview was held with members of the Senate, but before the bill could be passed, Congress adjourned. When the special session of Congress was called a bill identical in form with that of Mr. Sherley, was introduced by the Hon. Charles F. Ogden who is Mr. Sherley's successor in office. It was known as House Bill 2847, and was referred to the Committee on Education. A Hearing was held on June 14, at which the following were present, Miss Susan B. Merwin, Mr. Charles F. Ogden, Mr. Edward M. Van Cleve, Mr. O. H. Burritt, Mr. John F. Bledsoe, and Mr. Harold Molter, and again the Committee made a favorable report. The bill was taken up in the House July 9, and was passed according to information received by telegram from Mr. Ogden. The same bill has been introduced in the Senate by Senator A. O. Stanley of Kentucky, and also referred to the Committee on Education and Labor of which Senator Kenyon is Chairman. Steps should be taken at once to have a hearing before this Committee and to secure an early passage of the bill in the Senate.

Messrs. Van Cleve and Bledsoe reported favorable interviews with several Senators as they stopped over in Washington en route to Louisville.

Following the reading of letters from Senator Stanley and Colonel Cowan, Mr. Bruce moved that Miss Susan B. Merwin be requested to go to Washington to direct and assist the Legislative Committee to secure passage of bill in Senate and that her expenses be paid by the American Printing House for the Blind and that approval be made of the former action of the Committee in sending her on previous occasions, which motion was unanimously carried.

The Secretary was requested to express the thanks of the Board of Trustees to Representative Ogden for his efforts and services in behalf of the passage of H. R. 2847; also, to Senator Stanley for his generous offer of assistance.

A bill of $40.00 for telegrams sent in an effort to secure passage of the bill at the close of the last session by Messrs. Bledsoe, Van Cleve and Mills, was approved and ordered paid.

A report of the various publications and of the work accomplished by the American Printing House for the year was read by the Assistant Secretary.

The Financial statement of Meldrum and Meldrum, expert accountants, for the year ending June 30, 1919, was presented and approved. This report called attention to the fact that books were now being distributed at less than cost and that many accounts were very largely overdrawn.

Mr. Van Cleve recommended to the Executive Committee that the necessary steps be taken to bring the price of books up to cost.

A Motion was made by Mr. Wilson and unanimously carried that the secretary be authorized to refuse books to any Institution for the Blind which was overdrawn, where overdraft exceeds fifty per cent. of ensuing year's quota.

Mr. Halleck moved that the Board express its appreciation of the warm personal interest Messrs. Meldrum and Meldrum take in this Institution and their moderate charges for the amount of work done, which motion was unanimously carried.

A Motion by Mr. Bledsoe was unanimously carried to send Col. Cowan an expression of regret at his illness and absence from this meeting and to extend to him our best wishes for an early recovery.

ANDREW COWAN, President.

B. B. HUNTOON, Secretary.

The New York State Library has continued its great benefaction by contributing several works of great interest, which will be found specified on another page.

The enumeration of the pupils in the various institutions for the education of the blind in the United States for the year ending June 30, gave 5,213 pupils. The quota for each pupil is $1,918,282.

The following tables show the number of pupils in each institution, and how much has been distributed to each institution under the provisions of the Act of Congress, approved June 25, 1906, entitled "An Act to Modify the requirements of the Act of Congress, approved March 3, 1879, entitled 'An Act to Promote the Education of the Blind,' by which the American Printing House for the Blind receives $10,000 annually.
